Some of Australia's top film stars are helping promote homegrown films and help new Aussie talent in Hollywood.

Nicole Kidman, Mel Gibson, Russell Crowe and Naomi Watts are amongst a coalition of 34 actors and directors who have signed up to be ambassadors of the Los Angeles-based non-profit organisation Australians in Film.

Australians in Film holds regular screenings in LA of Australian-made movies and those involving Australian actors, directors and crew.

Kidman is quoted on Entertainment News saying, "Everyone knows how tough a struggle it can be to make it in Hollywood and, as an Australian, I'm very appreciative of the fact that Australians in Film not only showcases the work of those of us who have enjoyed some success, but also the work of up and coming talent from our country."
